Newsletter – October 2026
Corpus Christi Hope House and the Gabriel Project

It gives us great pleasure to announce that Corpus Christi Hope House has already served a total of approximately 14,000 clients since January 1, 2026. Ninety-five (84) women and children resided in our shelters, 12,280 clients received assistance and counseling through our Gabriel Project Community Outreach Program, 706 moms and dads attended Life Skills Training Classes, and the remaining received various forms of homeless prevention services. We are off to another record setting year! Thank you for your support!

Helping pregnant women, single mothers, families, children, and babies

On behalf of the board of directors, staff, and volunteers of Corpus Christi Hope House, we respectfully request that you keep our ministry in your daily prayers and send your most generous, financial contribution to us through the Day of Giving Campaign. Together, we will continue to provide, "Hope, Love and Charity for the neediest of our community."
